

OUR AGENTS.

The following persons are authorized to receive subscriptions and renewals, advertising in the Herald, orders for job work, etc., etc.:

WILLIAM COOPER, Louisville.
EDGAR HILLY, Louisville.
DAVID BOWEN, Louisville.
J. T. SMITH, Jr., Louisville.
J. E. SMITH, Louisville.
S. P. BENNETT, Louisville.
J. E. BEAN, Louisville.
DR. U. B. SANDERS, Louisville.
WILLIAM MAY, Louisville.
E. P. NEAL, Louisville.
T. C. FLOYD, Louisville.
V. H. HARRIS, Louisville.
O. H. WILLIAMS, Louisville.
W. A. GILSON, Louisville.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

WILLIAM F. BROWDER, of Logan county, is a candidate for Attorney General of the State of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party—election August 1883.

PERSONAL.

Judge George Day, of Owensboro, is attending the fair.

How T. Green, of Falls of Rough, was in town several days last week.

Mr. Mat Nichols with wife and child, of Calhoun, were visiting in town last week.

Mr. L. Shaugher, of L. Shaugher & Co., Fashionable Tailors and Drapers, Louisville, was in town a day or two last week. Look for him again in due time.

—Hill's Hair and Whisker dye, 50 cents.

—Dress goods in great variety at Small's.

—Fike's toothache drops cure in one minute.

—200,000 good brick for sale by Williams Bros.

—Born—To the wife of H. T. Her, Louisville, a boy.

—A table cloth 8 feet long for 20 cents at Small's.

—Shelled out at Williams Bros. Stock men will please call.

—For a cheap, nice suit of clothes everybody goes to Small's.

—Williams Bros. will do your horse shoeing cheap during the fair.

—Married, in the court house, Thursday, September 28th, 1882, by Judge Massey, Mr. James A. Sapp and Miss Mary A. Hemmings.

—Due of the Congressional candidates remarked, "Hartford people would make good slave-walkers if the condition of the board-walks is a criterion to go by."

—Spire Miller added to our cabinet of curiosities a petrification that is very curious, seeming to be an accretion of minute shells and plant like filaments. We have not seen it, as yet, to find its geological character and value.

—Ladies, you should not fail to visit Anderson's Bazaar when you come to the fair this week.

—Rev. G. J. Bean, of this place, preached two sermons at Crownwell Sunday (round) but attentive and appreciative audience. Bro. Bean is gradually awakening the Crownwell folks to the importance of serving the master he represents.

—The best and safest way to increase the appetite, assist digestion, cause the food to assimilate properly, and the absorbents to take up nutriment, induce full and regular evacuation, produce easy expectoration, and stop decay of the lungs, heart, liver, urinary and digestive organs, is by using Brown's Iron Bitters. It has given satisfaction in more than a million instances.

—James Barton, who cut Paris some time last summer at Buford, was tried in the Magistrate's Court last Friday and held over to Circuit Court. Failing to give bond he was brought to Hartford Friday night and lodged in Bro. Bean's Castle, but was bailed out Saturday morning. Our young County Attorney works well in "harness" and will see that the law is enforced.

—Here are the old reliable livery man's prices. He has concluded that the following figures will be sufficient to maintain his stable:

Full feed hay and corn, 25c.
Full feed hay, 15c.
Hick, 10c.
W. T. King is the old reliable.

King has a lot of new buggies for sale cheap for cash.

—While in South Carolina recently we called at J. B. Brown's Marble Works and took a look through the working departments of the establishment, and we were surprised to see such a vast amount of work being done in his line of business, such a great variety of headstones and artistic styles, all so handsomely and tastefully finished by his skilled and experienced cutters, engravers, carvers, and polishers. We asked the prices of some of his beautiful Italian Marble Monuments and were surprised to find them so remarkably cheap, and we asked him how it was that he could sell at such reduced prices? He said: "I buy my marble by the car-load at the quarries in Vermont, and my Italian marble from first hands in sea coast cities, hence by paying cash I get a good discount and reduced rates in freight by getting it by the car-load and propose to let my patrons have the benefit of these advantages." We feel satisfied from his prices that he is doing that most assuredly.

—200,000 good brick for sale by Williams Bros.

—Henry Small will sell you the cheapest and best clothing in town.

—J. H. Ambrose was sworn in as Deputy Marshal yesterday morning.

—Paddocks, horse combs and brushes can be had at Williams Bros.

—Wanted—Three or four good horses for heavy purposes. Apply to H. H. Erwin, Hartford, Ky., during the fair.

—Williams Bros. will furnish you with hardware, staple and fancy groceries at lowest rates during the fair week.

—Blackingham's dye for the whiskers is an elegant, safe and reliable article, cheap and convenient for use will not cut off. Try it.

—Mr. J. B. Miller sent us a potato vine over twenty-one feet in length. This is the longest so far. Bring in your vines and things.

—Women that have been pronounced incurable by the best physicians have been completely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

—The latest thing out is Indigo Blue Talcum. It is all the rage and sells at 12 cents. I sell it 8 cents.

H. SMALL.

—See J. H. Hensley, murderer of South Parrott, Ky., before you buy your tombstones, monuments, etc. He does the best work at the lowest price.

—Special prices at Anderson's Bazaar this week.

—The funeral of Mrs. Lavina Crabtree deceased, wife of Rev. J. T. Crabtree will be held by Rev. J. T. Crabtree at 10 o'clock, Sunday, October 11th, at 10 o'clock, A. M., 5th Sunday in October 1882.

—Rev. W. P. Bennett, of Island Station, pastor of the Baptist Church at this place, filled his appointment here Saturday night and Sunday by preaching three of his characteristic sermons.

—The big trade I enjoyed last week has induced me to reduce prices again. You will find them lower than you ever expected.

H. SMALL.

—The grand reunion of soldiers will be held at Hartford, Ky., Oct. 28th, 1882. We learn there will be a large attendance of the heroes of the war. It is expected that Col. J. H. McHenry will be the orator of the day.

—Low Prices on Clothing, especially for fair trade, at Anderson's Bazaar.

—We were a little too previous in changing the names of the Magistrates of the county as they do not go into office until next June. The mistake was made by copying off a complete list of all the officers elected in August.

—If you would do us not of kindness, tell your friend who suffers with piles, that Dr. Tabler has prepared an ointment that will cure that dreadful disease, the common hemlock being the chief ingredient. Use Tabler's Hemlock Ointment. Price fifty cents.

—The Hartford College News was unavoidably delayed last month. The September number will be out this week and will be as fresh and bright as if it had not slumbered two weeks longer than usual. Send to the publishers for sample copy.

—A nice lot of Gent's hats, especially for the fair trade, at Anderson's Bazaar.

—James Simch, a young man from Rosine, was arrested Monday evening and fined $5.00 for reckless riding through the streets. Jailer Beau went on his bond and he was released from custody.

—Mr. B. B. Bruce, of Cleveland, O., writes: "I felt generally unwell. Not desiring to get into the clutches of some rapacious doctor, I stepped into a drug store and inquired if they had a remedy that would cure anything and everything. The clerk promptly handed me a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters. I said, 'Is it good for dyspepsia?' He replied, 'There's nothing better.' I said, 'My urine isn't just the right color. I guess my kidneys are out of order.' 'Just the thing,' said he, 'for kidney disorders; you will find it strengthens all parts of the body, and very refreshing to the mental faculties.' 'Just the thing I want,' thought I, and I suited my complaint precisely. I never before believed in cure-alls, and now I make Brown's Iron Bitters the only exception, for I really believe it will relieve any disease that human flesh is heir to."

—A brace of good cigars is a blessing which seldom enters an editorial den; but it did strike this office lively yesterday morning. A friend from the country did it. We thank him. Some more do us that way. It is so seldom we are blessed with a treat that the Senior editor has forgotten how to smoke gracefully. Smoking is an art, a feat, but he can't do it that way. The Junior smokes gracefully, very gracefully. Always give him the cigars if you want them smoked in style. The Senior will take all the paper and potatoes and things. He will marry soon, it is thought, and will need them as he then contemplates house-keeping and the usual et cetera. But the Junior does look so pleasing with the smoke of a good cigar floating among his dark mustache and a smudge at the edge of his lip, that we have decided to let him have a cigar. The Senior has no mustache; he has struggled hard to raise one, but can't. Pity him. But don't forget that he likes vegetables and fossils. Send them to him. Also he loves stuffed snakes and frogs and "chick." We have presented the one fully and fairly; we leave it to you. Act upon the advice we give you and you will be happy.

—200,000 good brick for sale by Williams Bros.

—Go to Fink's and buy checks for lump and not cash. No dirt, no stick.

—The Ohio County Court of Claims has been in session since Monday.

—The Anderson's Bazaar display in Floral Hall will be seen today by artificial light—a new departure, certainly.

—Ladies should see the latest cloth; the handsomest cheap dress gown now in the market. Anderson's Bazaar has it.

—Anderson's Bazaar returns thanks for favors received of the Ohio County Fair Company and voted "the largest hearted Corporation in Kentucky."

—No family dyes were ever so popular as the Diamond Dyes. They never fail. The black is far superior to logwood. The other colors are very brilliant.

—The goods and prices at Anderson's Bazaar have been fixed especially for fair trade and all should call and take advantage of the arrangement.

—Mr. John H. Rogers, of Rosine, resigned the position of Deputy Sheriff, last Monday. Mr. Rogers has made a most efficient officer, and his resignation is regretted by all and especially by the tax-payers of Rosine and Crownwell districts.

—Wanted—A new railroad company; one that will build a road from the Springs to Indiana or Tennessee. We have several applicants here for matrimony, but transportation is bad. Should we succeed in getting a new company, I would suggest that a depot be established at Sunny Dale.

—We all sympathize with the gentleman who lost the silver ring.

—The Hines distillery will resume work as soon as the new crop of corn will do to grind.

—What has become of P. N. Quire's charming machine? Probably it needs a few doses of medicine from Doctor Anderson's New York.

—The Herald's gift distribution will soon come off. The agent at the Springs would like to send fifty names before the first of November. There are several subscribers at this place, but we should have as many more. It only costs $1.50 and if you cannot pay quite that much the agent will pay the balance for you. The subscription must increase before the drawing.

—[Now, you people about the Springs, what do you say to that? If you can't pay for the paper in full, he will help you out. That is what he says, and if he don't know, who does? Etc.]

The district school of this district is being taught by Prof. R. Campbell, of Rosine.

—Mr. F. L. Smith, who was badly wounded at Rosine, will be able to come home in a few days.

—Mr. M. Broadfield, of Livingston county, Ky., spent a few days with his old friends here last week. Mr. Broadfield reports crops good in his county, but health is not so good.

—There is but little sickness at the Springs, at least that is what the doctor and druggist think.

—Mrs. Dave Morton and two children left Thursday for Owensboro.

—Mr. A. L. Morton and wife, of Hartford, were at the Springs Tuesday. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Sarah Collins.

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

—The entertainment at Mr. W. H. Bean's on the night of the 25th, was enjoyed by all, except the young lady that stood near the door, the damsel, compressing her brow into an inspiring frown, ejaculated, "you clumsy wretch; many men would have looked foolish and apologized, but this boy was equal to the occasion; young lady, you should have felt more than to be seen, and then they would not be trodden upon?"

What Tom Moore Said.

"Wrinkles are democratic and flatter nobody." The same may be said of all blemishes of the skin, whether caused by sickness, age or accident.

Glenn's Sulphur Soap will at least retard the time when wrinkles make their appearance. It gives a pearly aspect to the skin which cannot be distinguished from the natural hue of a pure blonde complexion. Beware of counterfeits. See C. N. Crittenton, Proprietor, is printed on each packet, without which none is genuine. Sold by druggists and fancy goods dealers.

For Rent.

A nicely furnished double-room office, North side of Little Square. Apply to H. B. KISSLEV.

Alarming!

Colds that settle on the lungs soon become very dangerous if not promptly treated with Halsey's Honey of Horehound and Tar. Sold by druggists.

Taken up.

One red and white spotted heifer, marked with mottled in the left ear, three years old with young calf, by W. B. Leach, near Elm Lick Station.

What Eminent St. Louis Physicians say.

Preventive of malaria—Cullen's 14-liquid Tonic is a very agreeable article of diet, and particularly useful when a tonic is required, being tolerated when other forms of animal food are rejected. In diphtheria, ague, malaria, typhoid fever and every depressing disease, its use will be attended with great advantage. We have prescribed it with excellent success. J. H. Leslie, M. D., G. P. Cope, M. D., S. I. Parsons, M. D., R. A. Vaughan, M. D., Dr. S. L. and J. C. Nicodem, Wm. Porter, M. D. and many others. Take another. Of druggists.

Are never limited or counterfeited. This is especially true of a family medicine, and it is positive proof that the remedy imitated is of the highest value. As soon as it had been tested and proved by the whole world that Hop Bitters was the purest, best and most valuable family medicine on earth, many imitations sprung up and began to steal the credit which the press and people of the country had expressed the merits of Hop Bitters, and in every way tried to induce suffering invalids to make money on the credit and good name of Hop Bitters. Many other names were put up in similar style to Hop Bitters, with variously devised names in which the word "Hop" or "Hops" were used in a way to induce people to believe that they were the same as Hop Bitters. All such pretended remedies or cures, no matter what their style or name is, and especially those with the word "Hop" or "Hops" in their name or in any way connected with them or their name, are imitations or counterfeits. Beware of them; touch none of them; use nothing but genuine Hop Bitters, with a bunch of cluster of green hops on the white label. Trust nothing else. Druggists and dealers are warned against dealing in imitations or counterfeits.

It is the desire of the publishers of this paper to make it a paper for the people, and especially for the farmers. We want to be of use to you and in return want you to help us. Have you corn, tobacco, wheat, logs, horses, mules, cattle, sheep, hogs or land to sell? If you have we would like to help you sell it. We will insert a notice of anything the farmer has to sell one time free of charge, provided he will at the same time furnish at least two copies of stock items for the paper. What do you say, farmers?

From the world to that which it touches. The remarkable fact, as every one knows, was written under the influence of a dream, by John Bunyan, the most popular religious writer in the English language, and perhaps more copies have been sold than any other book except the Bible, our edition being a cheap and complete copy.

It is the desire of the publishers of this paper to make it a paper for the people, and especially for the farmers. We want to be of use to you and in return want you to help us. Have you corn, tobacco, wheat, logs, horses, mules, cattle, sheep, hogs or land to sell? If you have we would like to help you sell it. We will insert a notice of anything the farmer has to sell one time free of charge, provided he will at the same time furnish at least two copies of stock items for the paper. What do you say, farmers?

It is the desire of the publishers of this paper to make it a paper for the people, and especially for the farmers. We want to be of use to you and in return want you to help us. Have you corn, tobacco, wheat, logs, horses, mules, cattle, sheep, hogs or land to sell? If you have we would like to help you sell it. We will insert a notice of anything the farmer has to sell one time free of charge, provided he will at the same time furnish at least two copies of stock items for the paper. What do you say, farmers?

It is the desire of the publishers of this paper to make it a paper for the people

